Cardinal Gibbon Drama Department Presents *In The Heights

Ft. Lauderdale, FL — The Cardinal Gibbons High School Drama Department presents its first show of the fall semester of 2018. In The Heights tells the story of a vibrant Hispanic community in New York City's Washington Heights neighborhood - a place where the coffee from the bodega is always flowing, the windows are always open, and the streets are exploding with the songs and rhythms of three generations. It's a community ready for change, full of hope, dreams, and pressures, where the biggest struggles can be deciding which traditions you take with you, and which ones you leave behind.

In The Heights, written by Lin-Manuel Miranda (behind the Hamilton phenomenon), runs October 5th through October 7th at the Rose and Alfred Miniaci Performing Arts Center on the main campus at Nova Southeastern University in Davie (3100 Ray Ferrero Blvd. Davie, FL 33314). Performances take place Friday and Saturday at 8pm, with a matinee at 2pm on Sunday. Appropriate for middle school students and above. The production features a full band of twelve musicians from the local community and Cardinal Gibbons students.

Tickets are $12 for advance sales and $18 at the door. For more information visit www.cghsdrama6362.weebly.com. To purchase tickets, call (954)491-2900, ext. 135, or visit the lobby prior to each performance.
